Oronoco Dam Gets Repairs

Douglas County Auditor Resigns; Faces Charges

ALEXANDRIA, Minn. (AP) — A grand jury is to meet Oct. 17 to consider forgery and embezzlement charges against Leon Muller, who has resigned as Douglas County auditor.
 Muller, 33, was charged with aggravated forgery, attempted embezzlement of public funds, attempted theft and misconduct in public office. The charges came in connection with an alleged check-altering incident.
 Muller submitted his resignation to County Attorney Tom Reil, saying he no longer enjoyed the trust as auditor and that his health would be jeopardized were he to continue in office.
 The county attorney said the charges arose from an incident Tuesday in which Muller is alleged to have changed the name of the payee on an $800 county check to pay a personal debt.
